

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. You work for me not the telemarketing lobby. I don't want any sales calls at my home. There is enough taking my time away from my family.